The main title page is found near the front of the book and shows the title, author(s) and publisher name.

The verso page is found on the back of the book’s main title page.

Publisher name may be found near the top of the verso or at the bottom of the main title page.