The main title page is found near the front of the book and shows the title, author(s) and publisher name.

Place of publication can usually be found at the bottom of the main title page (or the top of the verso/other side).